

Automate the commission process directly from carriers.

Manually inputting data from thousands of transactions to reconcile direct bill commissions can take hours, even days. Your team members have so much more value to give than data entry.

By automating Direct Bill Commissions Statement (DBCS) download, you receive transaction data directly into your agency management system in your regular policy download, automatically creating an electronic version of the report for reconciling direct bill commissions. Automate the commission process with DBCS download to reduce manual entry and focus more on being a trusted advisor to your clients.

What Direct Bill Commission Statement Download Offers Your Business:

- An automated commission statement downloaded directly to your agency management system
- A more efficient way to ensure commissions are properly reconciled each month
- Increased data accuracy and less risk of errors and omissions

50% of the average worker's time is spent creating and preparing documents.
